WINE

THE WINES OF DAOU

Two decades ago, Daniel Daou told his brother, Georges, he wanted to plant a vineyard and winery in Paso Robles. Atop the steep slopes west of downtown Paso Robles, he found a prominent 2,200-foot peak just 14 miles from the Pacific Ocean. Reliably cooler than Napa Valley, the land combined clay topsoil with a limestone substrate, ideal for Cabernet Sauvignon and its cousins. "This combination is really profound," says Daniel. When acquired in 2007, the land was barren but today, DAOU Mountain is a model of wine country hospitality with world-class cuisine, service, and epic vistas. Making Paso Robles a household name remains central to their mission. Says Georges: "Our motto was always 'Come to Paso, Live the Dream.'"

Zanotto's Markets are proud to be featuring five of their most popular varietals in the month of May. As always, thank you for shopping at Zanotto's Markets.

DAOU
Paso Robles Rosé
750 ml. Bottle "Subtle hyacinth and ginger notes are accompanied by cranberry, rhubarb, cherry blossom and lemon meringue. The palate is exquisitely balanced, displaying a lush, crisp juiciness with flavors of ripe strawberry, papaya, nectarine and mandarin orange."
